

EVENTS PROGRAMME

LIMITED TICKETS FOR ALL EVENTS: BOOK YOUR FREE TICKETS NOW

Title	Day	Date	Time	Location	Details
Inspiring Islington Exhibition	Friday	Until 04/06/19	10am - 5pm (Weekdays)	Islington Museum	An exhibition exploring the stories of people who have created change in Islington. Portraits by Kimi Gill, from the Islington Faces blog by Nicola Baird.
Film Triple-Bill showing on Holloway Prison	Tuesday	16/04/19	6.30pm	Resource for London	From the Echoes of Holloway Prison project: Showcasing three films exploring different aspects of the prison before and after closure.
Journey to Justice Islington Press Launch	Thursday	18/04/19	5pm - 8pm	Resource for London	A chance for the press and the public to view the exhibition and meet the people who have worked together to bring it to Islington
Messy play with Islington Faces for under 5s	Thursday	25/04/19	10am - 11.30pm	Islington Museum	Come and explore Islington's many stories at this creative messy play.
Chat and Cake: Living your best life in Islington	Saturday	27/04/19	2.30pm - 4.30pm	Islington Museum	Chat and cake with Merium Bhuiyan, Sheri Lawal and Flora Williamson. How can women of all ages live their best life in Islington? Useful tips about life, work and ways to boost our communities.
Walk: Islington Activists	Monday	29/04/19	11am - 12.30pm	Islington Town Hall	Walk in the footsteps of Islington Activists from those fighting against apartheid to the battle for LGBTQ+ rights.
CANDI Does Spoken Word 1	Tuesday	30/04/19	12pm - 1pm	CANDI, Camden Road Site	CANDI students express their experiences through spoken word of living in Islington, the good, the bad and the fun
Knife crime and young people in Islington	Tuesday	30/04/19	4.30pm - 6pm	Resource for London	A Panel on Knife crime and its effects on the young people of Islington organised by students from CANDI
Layers of London Tutorial	Thursday	02/05/19	2pm - 3pm (core session) / 4.30pm	Resource for London	Learn how to add your stories of activism in Islington to a digital map "Layers of London"

CANDI Does Spoken Word 2	Friday	03/05/19	1pm - 2pm	Resource for London	CANDI students express their experiences through spoken word of living in Islington, the good, the bad and the fun
Storytelling for under 5s	Friday	10/05/19	Session 1:	Islington Museum	Hear the stories behind activists in Islington and explore how they made a difference with our storyteller, Dani. Arrive early to get a place.
Workshop: Write for Islington Faces	Saturday	11/05/19	2pm - 4pm	Islington Museum	Write your own or your neighbour's life story. Join Nicola Baird, author of popular local blog 'Islington Faces' to learn to interview and write about people's inspiring lives.
Talk, 'Protest! A History of Holloway Prison' with Roz Currie	Wednesday	15/05/19	6.30pm	Resource for London	Roz Currie, explores the story of the prison through protests inside, outside and about the prison itself. From the suffragettes to the fight for what happens next on the site.
Walk: Activist Islington, Holloway Road	Sunday	19/05/19	11am - 1pm	Islington Town Hall	Upper Street walking tour visiting key radical sites
Messy play for under 5s	Thursday	23/05/19	11am - 11.30pm	Islington Museum	Explore activism and protest in the borough at this creative messy play
Workshop: Get Focussed -Taking Portraits	Saturday	25/05/19	2pm - 4.30pm	Islington Museum	Learn how to take a portrait at this photo workshop with Islington Faces' photographer Kimi Gill. Bring your camera/phone.
Being Jewish in Britain - Journeys to Justice	Tuesday	04/06/19	6.30pm - 8.30pm	Resource for London	Carrie Supple and Henry Stewart host a discussion on Being Jewish in Britain - Journeys to Justice: History, the Arts and Social Change
Journey to Justice Islington: Legacy Event	Tuesday	04/06/19	2pm - 3.30pm	Resource for London	Layers of London: How to continue the legacy of Journey to Justice Islington through ongoing programming. Also the plans to create a Centre of Memory at Penton Street (former ANC London HQ)
Journey to Justice Islington: Celebration!	Thursday	06/06/19	5pm - 9pm	Resource for London	An evening of live music, special guests and much more to celebrate Journey to Justice Islington
Echoes of Holloway Prison Community Sharing Event	Friday	07/06/19	10am - 4pm	West Library	Echoes of Holloway Prison - an event to learn more about the Islington Museum project